

FAMILY SPONSORSHIP- You can change a family's life today.

“The family is important! Without the family, the cultural survival of the human race would be at risk. The family is the foundation. Evidence shows that offering wrap-around support is the best way to create and sustain resilience.” Nicola

Child's Name: Busani

Mother's Name: Sisanda

Busani was born in Cape Town, South Africa and is 5 years old. Busani recently graduated from the Work For Love Siyakhula Preschool he has been attending for 3 years. He will be attending Grade 1 in 2017.

Busani's father has passed away and now Sisanda and Busani live in a shack with 7 other people. The family, including his two aunts and his cousins have been living there since 2000. His mother is the only provider for all 8 people and is a kitchen hand in a hotel. She barely earns the minimum wage. Their shack is situated on the border of the wetlands and is in close proximity to the sewerage outlet from the public toilet, which runs, like a river, down to the wetlands. See the picture below.

Sisanda says it has been very difficult to feed and clothe him and provide for his education. She is a very strong person with a broad smile and a sunny disposition, but during the interview, as others have done, she began to cry. It was extremely difficult for her to discuss her situation. She wants very little. All she asks for is a better life for her child than she had.

Child's Name: Clint
Mother's Name: Sorobia
Father's Name: Kainos

Kainos, the family's father is a gardener and his mother works 3 days a week. They are struggling to make ends meet. There is no running water and no toilet in their shack and they must fetch water and use the public toilets, which are in extremely poor condition.

Sorobia and her husband are committed to giving Clint the best education they can and want to be sure that he has a better life, with greater opportunity than they had.

Clint was born in Zimbabwe in 2010 and moved to South Africa in 2011. He is 6 years old. He lives with his mother and his father in a shack, which they rent every month.

Clint is a confident little boy, with a gentle, but lively twinkle in his eye. His parents adore him and are doing a fantastic job raising him, despite their painfully difficult circumstances.

YOU can help a family realize their dreams. Become a sponsor of a family today.

YOU can change a family's life.

givengain